On arrival, visit the main shopping street in Kyu-Karuizawa, lined with stores selling a variety of local speciality products. Karuizawa was once the summer resort for a Canadian missionary who frequented the area in the late 1800s. Many of the town's buildings thereafter, such as the chapels and cottages, are distinctly European in style. After lunch, travel to the famous Jigoku Valley Monkey Park, where you can see wild snow monkeys bathe in hot springs all year round.

Day 5 Nagano 🚌 O-machi Onsen (B, L, D)

After breakfast, visit Hokusai Museum to discover the great Katsushika Hokusai (1760-1849), one of Japan's leading painters. Hokusai was most famous for his 'Thirty six views of Mt Fuji' painting and has gone on to influence many talented artists like Vincent van Gogh. Today's special highlight is a soba noodle making experience. Soba noodles are made from buckwheat flour. Learn how to create and roll dough, and then slice it into thin noodles using a special knife. Enjoy your own noodles for lunch. Continue on to Zenkou Temple, one of the largest Buddhist temples in Japan with an astounding history that spans over 1,400 years. Afterwards, partake in a sake tasting experience. Sake (rice wine) is a speciality in this region due to the abundant rice fields and clear waters nearby.

The drive along Kurobe Alpine Route is picturesque and the scenery varies depending on the season. In winter, you can witness massive snow walls that reach up to 20m in height. A visit in spring and summer will see the mountainside enveloped in lush, verdant alpine plants and flowers. In autumn, trees are ablaze with a stunning blend of orange, yellow and red leaves. On arrival, travel through the mountains using ropeways, cable cars and buses. A must-visit in this region is Kurobe Dam, one of the world's largest man-made structures, seamlessly blended in with the natural beauty of the Northern Alps. Afterwards, stop by Mikuriga Ponds and be fascinated by the mysterious pristine blue waters of the volcanic lake.

Visit Buke Yashiki (samurai house) and discover how higher-ranked samurai lived in the feudal society of the Edo period (1603-1867). Later, wander through the streets of Higashi Chaya, a district lined with quaint old buildings that were once teahouses frequented by geisha (traditional Japanese female entertainers) and their guests. Next, visit Kenroku Garden, regarded as one of the country's most elegant Japanese gardens, that combines the six traditional qualities of a perfect garden; spaciousness, seclusion, artifice, antiquity, water features, and panoramas. The last stop for today is Shirakawago, a World Heritage site where 114 Gassho-style houses (steeply-pitched roofs in the shape of a triangle), built many hundreds of years ago, stand together in a natural setting.

Day 8 Takayama 🚗 Nagoya (B, D)

Takayama is an atmospheric and historic town and many of its streets still retain a traditional feel dating back to the late 17th century. Afterwards, visit Takayama Jinya (historical government house) that was constructed by the powerful Tokugawa Shogunate. Beside the main building you will find a large rice storehouse. Have lunch at Sanmachi, before you bid farewell to Takayama. Drive to Nagoya and visit the Toyota Commemorative Museum of Industry and Technology. Here you will learn about the history of Toyota as a textile machinery manufacturer and how it became a successful mass exporter and manufacturer of automobile and automotive technology including robots.

Day 9 Nagoya 🚗 Kyoto 🚗 Osaka (B, D)
