Testimonials

Greetings... we just returned from your tour to Beijing and Shanghai. We travelled as a family of four (two teenagers) and had a very enjoyable and memorable trip. The hotels in both Beijing and Shanghai were quality hotels and the rooms were spacious. Buffet breakfast was sumptuous and the meals.

Our guide in Beijing (King – local tour guide) and George (national tour guide in Beijing & Shanghai) were very knowledgeable, kind, funny and always willing to help. They provided us with in-depth information on the local history in both the cities. George entertained us with his Chinese and English songs and jokes on the bus. The weather was good, sunny and no rain.

Would recommend this tour to anyone and it is value for money and a great way of seeing China.

Day 1: Australia ✈ Beijing

Depart Australia today on your flight to Beijing (please note, some flight may depart 1 day before). You will arrive at Beijing International Airport. Following customs and immigration formalities and baggage collection you'll be met and transferred to your hotel.

Beijing, China's massive capital, has a history stretching back three millennia. Yet since the 2008 Olympic Games, it's known for its modern architecture as well as ancient sites such as the grand Forbidden City complex, the imperial palace during the Ming and Qing dynasties.

Please note: Some flights may depart the night before.

Day 2: Beijing (B)

After breakfast, visit Tiananmen Square, the second-largest public square in the world! Tiananmen Square is named after the Tiananmen (Gate of Heavenly Peace) located to the north of the square, separating it from the Forbidden City. The square contains the Monument to the People's Heroes and has great cultural significance, as it was the site of several important events in Chinese history.

Next, continue on to the incredible Forbidden City, which was the imperial palace from the Ming to the Qing dynasty (1420 to 1912). The complex consists of 980 buildings and covers 72 ha (over 180 acres). The Forbidden City was declared a World Heritage Site in 1987 and is listed by UNESCO as the largest collection of preserved ancient wooden structures in the world!

Optional Activity: Peking Duck Dinner – Tonight, head out for one of the most famous Chinese dishes and a Beijing speciality, Peking Duck.

Day 3: Beijing (B)

Today's highlight is an excursion to the majestic Great Wall at Juyong Pass. This is one of the three most famous passes along the Great Wall of China, together with Jiayuguan and Shanhaiguan. 60 km from downtown Beijing, Juyong Pass was the northern route to Beijing in ancient times. Once here, there is plenty of time to learn about the wall's construction and you'll have the chance to climb a portion of this 6,000 km marvel.

On the way back to Beijing, we stop at one of the largest jade exhibitions in Asia. Then, after lunch, see skilled artisans at work at a cloisonné factory.

Cloisonné is a famous traditional enamel ware, known as the 'Blue of Jingtai' in China, with a history of over 500 years. It was so called because blue was the colour typically used for enamelling, and Jingtai was the reign title of the 7th Ming Emperor. Optional Show: The Golden Mask Dynasty. This show incorporates dancing, acrobatics, magnificent costumes and lot of surprises. Seen by an estimated of 1.1 million people, it is one of Beijing's must see shows.

Day 4: Beijing (B)

Enjoy a tour to the Summer Palace, the largest preserved ancient garden in China and a former summer resort for Emperors followed by a visit to the Chinese Herbal Institute to learn about traditional Chinese medicine as you enjoy a rejuvenating foot massage which has existed for thousands of years. Tonight, cap off the day by attending a superb and thrilling Chinese Kung-Fu Show (at your own expense).

Optional Tour: Panda House & Hutong Life Tour w/Lunch – A rickshaw will take you around the intricate winding hutongs to admire the old courtyards. They are maze-like and deep and exactly as they were a long time ago. Even today, there are many residents reluctant to move from their beloved hutongs. You are invited to visit a local family's house to experience authentic Beijing life. Visit the Panda House in Beijing Zoo to see China's adorable national treasure – the Giant Panda.

Optional Tour: Chinese Kung-Fu Show – This show is an energetic mix of traditional Chinese martial arts, dance and high-flying acrobatics set in a modern theatre. Combined with an excellent storyline, exceptional stage design and professional actors this show is not to be missed for Chinese Kung-Fu enthusiasts or those seeking a thrilling performance.

Day 5: Beijing 🚄 Shanghai (B)

This morning, experience the high-speed train to Shanghai! Travelling at up to 300km/h, the new high-speed train network is the world's largest, and a testament to China's desire to be a technological power house. Shanghai has a long history as a gateway to China, and sits on the Yangtze River delta. It is the financial centre of modern China, and also one of China's cultural centres. On arrival to Shanghai we visit a silk spinning mill and learn how silk is created by mulberry-munching silkworms. Then we walk along the famous Bund, a mile-long stretch along the Huangpu River. Lined by colonial architecture of European design, this area is the best place to capture the western influences of the city's old days. Continue to the Old Town which is a perfect combination of gardens, temples, traditional architecture, local culture, business souvenirs and food. Afterwards, you may join an optional Huangpu River Cruise (at your own expense).

Day 6: Shanghai (B)

Enjoy a free day to explore Shanghai at your own pace.

Optional Tour: Shanghai Museum, Jin Mao Tower & Xintiandi Area – Visit the Shanghai Museum to see ancient Chinese art, furniture and jade, followed by the Jin Mao Tower Observation Deck (88th floor) for a panoramic view of the Huangpu River and the Bund. Then we explore the Xintiandi Area, which holds the historical and cultural legacies of the city.

Optional Show: ERA: Intersection of Time or SPIRAL: See a captivating combination of Chinese history, mesmerising martial arts, and incredible special effects throughout the unique spectacle. Watch China's evolution from humble beginnings to the global superpower it is today, and enjoy entertaining live music and elaborate costumes as you experience show.

Day 7: Shanghai ✈ Australia (B)

Today you will be transferred to the airport for your onward flight home. We hope you will have enjoyed an unforgettable journey!

Day 8: Australia

Arrive home today.
