

Japan Golden Route with Qantas Flights 10 Days

~~¥3,999.00~~ $2,999.00

Medium Pace

Osaka, Kyoto, Nara, Mount Fuji, Hakone, Kamakura, Tokyo

We would love for our customers to experience Japanese culture and history along with its modern sights, smells, and sounds. We will spend one night on the tour in a traditional Japanese hotel, sleeping on rice straw mats called tatami. You will also visit restaurants on this tour where it is customary to remove your shoes and sit at low tables called kotatsu. It's all part of the Japanese experience!

Highlights:

- Pray for your fortune at the beautiful Heian Jingu Shrine
- Feed the gentle sika deer at Nara Park, established around 700 years ago
- Race to Mount Fuji on a high speed Shinkansen bullet train
- Drink from clear springs at the foothills of Mount Fuji, Japan's highest mountain
- Loosen your muscles overnight at a traditional hot spring hotel (onsen)
- Explore the bustling capital Tokyo, with its boisterous night life & hearty street food

From the end of March through early April, when the cherry blossoms (sakura) are in full bloom, people gather in parks to welcome spring in a Japanese tradition known as hanami (flower viewing).

From the end of October through early November is the best season of the year for viewing vibrant crimson maple leaves in Japan. You can feel the fragile beauty of the changing seasons from observing nature. The fiery red is a true spectacle.

NOTE: Cherry blossoms and crimson autumn leaves are highly seasonal and subject to climatic conditions. These are historically the best times to view the blooms, but we can't guarantee they will flower on these dates.

Testimonial:

We are just back from our 11 Day Golden Tour of Japan. From the time we landed at Kansai International Airport, Osaka, until our departure from Narita airport, Tokyo, it was a very well organised tour. We had an excellent tour guide in Ms Yumi Obanata. As she took us through the mainland of Japan from Osaka, through Kyoto, Nara, Mount Fuji, Hakone, Shizuoka, Kamakura, to Tokyo, she vividly suffused us with Japan's history, and the pride Japanese society has in its religious fervour, language, and culture. She was a fantastic lady, very knowledgeable and caring looking after the tour group needs.

The route was very scenic with rural, mountainous, and city landscapes. Mount Fuji, the heart and soul of Japan, we saw stood out in full glory with a shrine dedicated to Goddess Mt. Fuji for her blessings. The hotels were excellent. We enjoyed a Japanese traditional onsen, which is a Japanese hot spring bathing facility, and a traditional Japanese dining experience in one of these hotels. The ambience was both warm and unique.

Overall, we had a wonderful time and thank you for the excellent organization of this tour. We would recommend Nexus to all our friends and we are very grateful for the experience of visiting Japan in May. The weather was fine throughout and we did not miss seeing the beautiful cherry blossoms. We look forward to our next Nexus trip.

Tokyo Optional Programs

Nikko Day Tour with Japanese-style Lunch

$250

Nikko is a major centre for Buddhism and the Shinto religion. It is located in a valley and surrounded by beautiful deciduous forests and majestic waterfalls. This optional tour will take you to the UNESCO World Heritage Site Nikko Toshogu. This area is well known for its distinctive architecture made up of a large number of wood carving and gold leaf decorated buildings. This design is unique and not seen elsewhere in Japan. You will also visit Kegon Waterfall (around 100m tall) which is the main natural attraction in Nikko. This is the best spot to view maple leaves during autumn.

Not available on the following Japan departure dates:

2016: 23 Oct

2017: 17 Oct

Tokyo Disneyland Day Ticket

$120

Tokyo Disneyland is a 115-acre (47 ha) theme park at the Tokyo Disney Resort in Urayasu, Chiba, Japan, near Tokyo. Its main gate is directly adjacent to both Maihama Station and Tokyo Disneyland Station. It was the first Disney park to be built outside the United States, and it opened on 15 April 1983. The park has seven themed areas: the World Bazaar; the four classic Disneylands: Adventureland, Westernland, Fantasyland and Tomorrowland; and two mini-lands: Critter Country and Mickey's Toontown. Many of the games and rides in these areas mirror those in the original Disneyland as they are based on American Disney films and fantasies. Fantasyland includes Peter Pan's Flight, Snow White's Scary Adventures, Dumbo the Flying Elephant and more based on classic Disney films and characters.

Tokyo DisneySea Day Ticket

$120

Tokyo DisneySea is a 176-acre (71.22 ha) theme park at the Tokyo Disney Resort located in Urayasu, Chiba, Japan, just outside Tokyo. It opened on September 4, 2001. Tokyo DisneySea attracted an estimated 14 million visitors in 2013, making it the fourth-most-visited theme park in the world. In 2002 Tokyo DisneySea won a Thea Award from the Themed Entertainment Association for the concept, design, and construction of the theme park. The award was presented at El Capitan Theatre in Hollywood, CA. Tokyo DisneySea was also the winner of the 2012-2015 Theme Park Insider award for best theme park. There are seven uniquely themed areas or 'ports of call'. The entrance to the park is Mediterranean Harbour, which opens up to six more nautically themed ports: American Waterfront, Lost River Delta, Port Discovery, Mermaid Lagoon, Arabian Coast, and Mysterious Island.

Sumo Wrestling

$65*

Sumo is a traditional Japanese style of wrestling and Japan's national sport. The rules of the game are simple. Two wrestlers compete to force one another outside of the circular ring or to touch the floor with any part of the body other than the soles of the feet. The art of sumo wrestling dates back to ancient times as a form of entertainment for Shinto deities. Ceremonial rituals in accordance with Shinto beliefs are still practiced today before a match, such as purifying the ring with salt and extravagant stomps made by the sumo wrestlers to drive away evil spirits. There is no weight classification in sumo wrestling and the sheer size of many of the wrestlers is a sight to behold.

Only available on 9 May and 12 Sep. Please contact us for detailed information.

Robot Restaurant

$100

Not just any restaurant and bar, Tokyo's Robot Restaurant is most famous for its late night robot-themed dancing and battle shows. Behold an outrageous and electrifying live spectacle featuring Japanese taiko drum performances as well as mock battles between bikini-clad dancing girls, giant robotic dinosaurs, cyborgs, ninjas and a host of other bizarre characters, staged in a theatrical LED-fitted room bursting with kaleidoscopic neon-lit laser beams, virtual fireworks, explosions and energetic techno music. This sensory overload is Japanese pop culture at its wackiest and is exclusive to Japan. Please choose from the times below: 17:55, 19:50 or 21:45~ $100/person for show tickets. Please enquire if you wish to add a meal package. (* Please be there at least 30 minutes before the show)

Tea Ceremony (30 minutes)

$55

The Japanese tea ceremony is a traditional ritual influenced by the principles of Zen Buddhism, in which powdered green tea, or matcha, is prepared and served to a small group in a quiet setting. Often traditional Japanese confectionary is served to balance out the bitter taste of the green tea. Highlights: Learn the process of the Japanese tea ceremony from a qualified tea instructor. Learn which utensils to use to prepare green tea in a traditional Japanese room (tatami flooring). Discover the customs, culture, and hospitality of the Japanese people.

Physical considerations: Tea ceremony is performed in a kneeling position (seiza) on the floor. This puts pressure on your knees and ankles. Please be cautious of joining this optional program if you have a condition that prevents you from kneeling on the floor for a short period of time.

Optional: $130 – Wear traditional Japanese garments (kimono) and experience a tea ceremony

Pottery Making Experience (60 minutes)

$99

Pottery is one of the oldest art forms, and earthenware traditions in Japan are believed to have started around 12,000 years ago. Today, there are thousands of potters who make a living out of producing pottery-wares across the country. The pottery produced in each region varies in design because of the type of clay found there.

Highlights:

- Try your hand at making your own cup or bowl by using the spinning wheel and clay.
- Receive a pre-made sake cup made by the instructors as a souvenir.

Golden Joinery (60 minutes)

$109

Learn the art of golden joinery (kintsugi or kintsukuroi), a technique of repairing broken cups, bowls, or plates using lacquer resin laced with gold powder. As a philosophy the mended flaws become part of the object's design. The result is that the object looks more beautiful than the original after being broken and repaired.

Highlights:

- Mend broken cups, bowls or plates using powdered gold.
 - Take home the object you repaired as a unique souvenir.

$120 per person

The kimono is the traditional dress of Japan and is representative of its culture and heritage. The dress consists of a long robe with wide sleeves that is usually made of various materials and patterns. Today the kimono is only worn sparingly, on formal occasions such as weddings, funerals, tea ceremonies or other special events. Take part in a memorable photo shoot at a studio where you can dress up in a kimono of your choice. You can take photos with your own camera or you may choose to purchase a photo package plan from the photographers.

Highlights:

- Dress up in a kimono of your choice for the photo shoot.
 - Have your photos taken for free with your own camera or purchase photos from professional photographers.

Cooking Class (120-180 minutes)$129 Popular!

Japanese cuisine (washoku) is well known for its refined taste and elegant presentation. Take part in a Japanese cooking experience and learn from one of Tokyo's most popular cooking instructors whose book has been published in English. Bring home with you a set of new cooking skills and culinary techniques that will leave your friends and family impressed.

Highlights:

- Learn to cook different types of Japanese foods, such as sushi, soup and various side dishes.
- Learn the ingredients, culinary techniques and methods used in creating home made Japanese dishes.
- Enjoy your own cooked dish for lunch.

Note:

- Transportation is not included. However, optional program venues are located in the easily accessible Tokyo CBD.
- You may join up to 2 programs per day (exception: Nikko Day Tour).
- Optional programs are subject to availability and must be booked more than 1 month before departure.
