Split: Split is one of the oldest cities along the Adriatic Coast, generally considered to be around 1700 years-old, although some claim it dates back even further and is the descendant city of an ancient Greek colony.

A range of exciting optional programs are available for purchase through the website: www.msccruises.com.au. Please be sure to check the latest information including availability and the cost of optional programs prior to your arrival in Europe.

Mykonos: When sailing on an MSC cruise to the Mediterranean Sea, Mykonos is the quintessential image of the Cyclades. In summer most people head out to the beaches during the day, so early morning or late afternoon are the best times to wander the maze of narrow streets.

Ancona: A modern trade centre and the charm of the ancient city. Ancona hits you with a tangle of commercial buildings only two steps away from the Mediterranean Sea.

Santorini: You can't say you have been to Greece on holiday without seeing the natural wonder of Santorini. As our MSC cruise ship manoeuvres into the great caldera of Santorini (Thira), the land seems to rise up and clamp around it.

Dubrovnik: A walled, sea-battered city lying at the foot of a grizzled mountain, Dubrovnik is Croatia's most popular cruise destination, and it's not difficult to see why.
